

What is The Stella Award?

The Stella Award was created by Estelle Craig, a long-time member of ACT II STUDIO in Programs for 50+ and Community Engagement. The award acknowledges Estelle's commitment to the theatre and lifelong learning. The Stella Award recognizes students that share Estelle Craig's passion for using theatre as a vehicle to bring stories to life and was created to inspire adults 50+ to write and submit an original one-act play. This award will provide financial assistance and recognize a playwright who has created an original one-act play and who is a member/participant in The Chang School's Programs for 50+ and Community Engagement, The Estelle Craig ACT II STUDIO, and/or LIFE Institute.

What is the value of The Stella Award?

There is one annual cash award (the value varies from year to year).

Who is eligible to apply?

To be eligible to apply for The Stella Award you must be a member/participant within The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education's Programs for 50+ and Community Engagement, The Estelle Craig ACT II STUDIO and/or LIFE Institute.

Who is ineligible to apply?

In order to encourage new works, the panel will not consider plays that have already been performed publicly.

How will applicants be selected?

Submissions will be reviewed by a committee composed of representatives from Toronto Metropolitan University and the wider theatre community. Successful completion of an original one-act play – submissions will be judged based on the following criteria:

1. Concept/Theme – Does it work as a stage play?
2. Structure – Does the structure enhance the story?
3. Plot – Is the plot effective and believable in its genre and does it have a conclusion? Does the play have a protagonist? Does it show conflict?
4. Character Development - Do the characters hold our attention? Are they well rounded?
